1. Lomir Zingen

Teaches for visitors line by line, words, then adding melody

Teaches alto down a 4th

2. Kholomen Khaloymes

With all phrases that end with half-notes or longer, hold the sound until end, DON'T DIE OUT!

3. Volt Ikh Gehat Koyekh

Sight reading all the way through

Review pp.1-2

mp3s available at (<https://abvchorus.org/music-current.html>), search or “volt,” unbelievably, there is no bass version yet, but to come...

4. Im Ein Ani Li – song for the concert with Koleinu

Learn and sing through Chants 1,2,3, no words, /ta/ only

Then adding English words on Chant 3 (at m. 32)

At m. 48 each section (S, A, T/B) takes one of the chants and sings them at the same time (in counterpoint), we practiced this from m. 48-80, when the chants repeat, then skipped a middle section and went to m.103, when the chants repeat again to the end

For Rosh Hashanah at BWC, ABV is singing part of Pleytem Tsuzamen as follows:

- Reh C (m. 12 with pick up) Mir zaynen...
- Reh D (m. 23) Yay da day...
- Reh A (m. 1, v4) A der soyne... CONTINUING STRAIGHT ON...
- Reh C (m. 12 with pick up) Mir zaynen...
- Reh D (m. 23) Yay da day... (no ritard.) BACK TO...
- Reh C (m. 12 with pick up) Mir zaynen...ENDING AT M. 21
